About Us

Old World Copper Works was established to offer you quality hand crafted custom copper, brass, sheet metal and iron works with professional installation service.

We combine our knowledge of old world metal crafting with today's advanced computer techniques to provide classic and elegant designs that will add style to the inside and outside of either your home or business. Old World Copper Works offers a variety of products along with a specialization in metal roofing.

Old World Copper Works can help you find your Old World style. When selecting the metal work that fits your needs, you can choose from our designs or we can work to replicate designs found in magazines, photographs, or your imagination. Also, we can create pieces to match your existing metal works.

We offer high quality metals custom made to fit your needs. The knowledge and experience we have for metal working is evident in all of our projects. Our attention to detail is unsurpassed. And our passion for this trade is undeniable.
